SECOND DEFENSE

As an affirmative defense, the City is a municipal corporation which was, at all times relevant herein, performing law enforcement services, a governmental function. The City and its law enforcement officers, in their official capacities, are protected by governmental immunity in the performance of governmental functions, and this immunity has not been waived. Therefore, governmental immunity is pled in bar of any right to recovery in this action.

THIRD DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, to the extent that Plaintiffs seek to recover punitive damages from the City, no statutory basis exists to support an award of punitive damages against the City arising out of Plaintiffs' claims.

FOURTH DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, to the extent that the Amended Complaint contains claims against the City arising in connection with the City's performance of law enforcement functions and to the extent that Plaintiffs seek to recover punitive damages from the City of Raleigh, such claims violate the Constitution of the United States in that they seek to deprive the City of property without due process of law, violate the Constitution's provisions concerning equal protection, and violate the Constitution's prohibition against the imposition of excessive fines.

FIFTH DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, to the extent that the Amended Complaint contains claims against the City arising in connection with the City's performance of law enforcement functions and to the extent that Plaintiffs seek to recover punitive damages from the City, any such claim for punitive damages is barred or limited by Chapter 1D of the North Carolina General Statutes and by common law principles.

SIXTH DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, at all times relevant herein, the individual defendant officers acted within the course and scope of their employment as sworn law enforcement officers without malice or corruption. Public Official's Immunity bars Plaintiffs' common law claims against these officers. Because Plaintiffs' common law claims against the individual defendant officers are barred by Public Official's Immunity, the City cannot be held vicariously liable for the conduct of its police officers.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, because all City police officers who interacted with Plaintiffs acted reasonably and did not violate any of Plaintiffs' clearly established statutory or Constitutional rights, the Plaintiffs' claims are barred by qualified immunity. Further, because Plaintiffs' claims against the individual defendant officers are barred by qualified immunity, the City cannot be held vicariously liable for the conduct of its police officers.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, to the extent that the arrest of Plaintiff Kevin Hines was unsupported by probable cause, which is expressly denied, the actions of the individual defendant officers with respect to Plaintiff Kevin Hines' detention and arrest were based upon a reasonable mistake of law or a reasonable mistake of fact, and the actions of the individual defendant officers were valid, lawful, and reasonable in light of such reasonable mistake of law or reasonable mistake of fact. The valid, lawful, and reasonable conduct of the individual defendant officers in light of a reasonable mistake of law or reasonable mistake of fact bars Plaintiffs' claims herein. Further, as Plaintiffs' claims against the individual defendant officers are thus barred, the City cannot be held vicariously liable for the conduct of its police officers.

NINTH DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, to the extent that any individual defendant acted with malice proximately causing injury to Plaintiff, which is specifically denied, such malicious conduct was not within the course and scope of employment with the City of Raleigh and cannot form the basis of liability against the City. Therefore, to the extent that this Court or a jury determines that any Raleigh police officer acted maliciously or corruptly, then the City has no vicarious liability for these acts outside the course and scope of City employment.

TENTH DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, to the extent that facts revealed during further investigation or formal discovery show that one or more of the Plaintiffs was contributorily negligent, and that such contributory negligence was a proximate cause of any damages claimed by the Plaintiffs, such contributory negligence is pled in bar of Plaintiffs right to recover herein.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, to the extent that facts revealed during further investigation or formal discovery show that probable cause existed to arrest Plaintiff Kevin Hines May 16, 2013 on grounds including, but not limited to, trespassing; resisting, delaying, or obstructing a law enforcement officer; or any other offense punishable as a misdemeanor or felony under North Carolina law, such probable cause is pled in bar of Plaintiffs right to recover herein.

TWELVTH DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, the City pleads all applicable statutes of limitation in bar of any or all of Plaintiffs' claims against the City or any or all of the individual defendants in their official capacities.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

As a further affirmative defense, with respect to any of Plaintiffs' claims against the City which are grounded in derivative liability, vicarious liability, or respondeat superior, the City incorporates by reference as if fully restated herein all defenses pled by the individual defendants; and to the extent that any of Plaintiffs' claims are defeated in whole or in part by these defenses, any vicarious liability assigned to the City is likewise extinguished.

ADDITIONAL DEFENSES

The City reserves the right to amend its Answer and to assert additional affirmative defenses as the claims of the Plaintiffs are more fully disclosed during the course of this litigation.

JURY DEMAND

Pursuant to North Carolina General Statutes § 160A-485(d), the City of Raleigh does not request a trial by jury on issues related to insurance or governmental immunity. The City does, however, request a trial by jury on all other issues of fact so triable herein.

WHEREFORE, having responded to the allegations of Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint, the City of Raleigh respectfully requests that:

1. Plaintiffs' prayer for relief be denied in its entirety;
2. Plaintiffs have and recover nothing of the City of Raleigh;
3. The costs of this action, including reasonable attorney's fees, be taxed against the Plaintiffs; and
4. For such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
